KRIS SNYDER JOINS FIDUCIARY PARTNERS

July 23, 2018 (Appleton, Wisconsin) - Fiduciary Partners Trust Company, the only independent and privately owned trust company of its kind in the state of Wisconsin, today announced Kris Marie Snyder has joined the firm as Assistant Vice President for estate and trust settlement.

Snyder has a total of 28 years of experience in trust services, 18 of which are specific to estate and trust settlement. She works closely with clients and their professional advisors to provide compassionate and responsive settlement of personal trusts and/or estates. Snyder earned an associate business degree from Fox Valley Technical College and has continued her education by attending educational courses through Cannon Financial Institute. She will be based in the Appleton, Wisconsin location.

J. Robert Ellis, Vice President said, "Our growth continues, and we are thrilled Kris is joining Fiduciary Partners. Her strong background in estate and trust settlement and shared values of exemplary service and building lasting personal relationships is a great addition to our firm."
