ANN STARK TO RETIRE

May 14, 2020 (Appleton, Wisconsin) - Fiduciary Partners Trust Company announced today that Ann Stark, Vice President, will retire effective May 27.

Ann's career in trust services started more than 25 years ago and she joined Fiduciary Partners in 2009. During her tenure, Ann implemented Fiduciary Partners' trust and estate settlement services and served as administrator for several trust relationships. Because of Ann's dedication and exceptional and compassionate service, settlement services have grown into an integral part of the firm, serving clients throughout Wisconsin, Upper Michigan and Northern Illinois.

Ryan Valentine, President and Shareholder expressed his appreciation for Stark's work: "Ann was crucial to the beginning of our estate and trust settlement services. She has been not only an asset to our company but a knowledgeable and compassionate guide to the families she worked with. I want to thank Ann for her service and dedication to our clients and centers of influence for the last decade."

"I've been fortunate to work with Ann elsewhere and here at Fiduciary Partners. She demonstrates thoughtfulness in everything she does and is a joy to work with. We will miss her invaluable contributions to our team," said Jan Grant, Vice President.
