BEVERLY NESPODZANY TO RETIRE

October 30, 2020 (Appleton, Wisconsin) - Fiduciary Partners Trust Company announced today that Bev Nespodzany will retire effective October 30, 2020.

Bev has served the banking and trust industry in Northeast Wisconsin for 53 years, working side-by-side with Steve Truchinski for over 35 years. As a Trust Administration Specialist, Bev built a special relationship with her clients, providing guidance and oversight of their retirement plans, income tax returns, and personal trust accounts.

Ryan Valentine, President and Shareholder of Fiduciary Partners says, "Bev's commitment to our team has been unparalleled. Her contributions to the organization have been instrumental to our growth. She has served as a resource and a mentor to many, and we have all benefited from her hard work and willingness to go the extra mile. No matter the task, she was always willing to take on more. Bev's years of experience and knowledge will be dearly missed."

Bob Ellis, Vice President and Shareholder says, "It is with sincere gratitude and warm wishes that we share the news of Bev's retirement. She has been a role model of consistency and service for 17 years with Fiduciary Partners, and an entire career in trust services. We will always remember Bev as a dedicated, committed, and friendly colleague. We will miss her willingness to share her knowledge and experience, and her ever-present smile. Bev set an example for us all. We are thankful for the many years she shared with us and wish her the best of everything in the years to come."
